Globalization, industrialization and transmigration tend to create new social values, cultures and classes among the people/community members due to rapidly changing environment within the nations in the 21st Century. In such a context, the Department of Sociology, East West University, Dhaka, Bangladesh is going to organize the First National Conference on "Contemporary Changes in Bangladesh Society" on May 12, 2018 in order to bring together scholars, young researchers, educationists and students. For the event, abstract/papers are invited dealing with contemporary social changes and their consequences in Bangladesh society. This conference will specifically focus on gender, education, ethnicity, indigenous group, social structure, urban and rural society, migration, urbanization, globalization, health and population, and actors related to poverty alleviation in the country.

Conference Objectives

The objective of the conference is to bring together academicians, research scholars, students and other professionals to share their research findings and knowledge, insights and experiences on contemporary social changes in Bangladesh. This conference will serve as a unique opportunity for the young students and researchers to meet the academicians and professionals in order to engage themselves with the recent sociological issues and developments in Bangladesh society.
